

Opera Premieres at Redondo High

Joining forces with the Beverly Hills Civic Opera Association, the Pacific Symphonette, conducted by Thomas Wilson, will present the Verdi Opera "Il Trovatore" (The Troubador) at the Redondo Union High School Auditorium July 23 and 24 at 8 p.m.

The Symphonette has been active in the South Bay-Harbor area, where it has presented large choral works under the leadership of Wilson. The instrumentation of the Symphonette will be augmented for the playing of the opera score, according to Wilson. Orchestra players who desire to participate in this civic presentation are invited to attend auditions Wednesday at the Redondo High School Music Hall, Wilson added.

Where's Torrance Blvd.? City Motorist Faces Mirage

Once upon a time, a motorist was driving down Torrance Blvd. looking for Portola St. He had intended to turn north on the street, but found that each street was named Torrance Blvd. Funny, he thought, I thought I was on that boulevard. Then he found he was. So the little motorist turned around and found that on the south side of the boulevard, there was a Portola Street. So, he made a U-turn, heading eastward again, but found that on the north side

Accident Injures Torrance Youths

Two teen-agers from Torrance were involved in an automobile accident in Manhattan Beach which sent seven victims to the Harbor General Hospital Sunday.

Floyd, 14, and James Copeland, 16, were passengers of Ruth M. Degeere. One of the two cars involved in the crash smashed into a home.

Lions Club Elects Mechura President

South Torrance Lions Club members elected James Mechura, sales representative for Ducommun Metals and Supply Co., president of the organization at their annual election recently.

Mechura succeeds Douglas Trowbridge, Torrance Attorney, at the helm of the 35-member organization.

The incoming president will preside with Floyd F. Lee, first vice president; George Jordan, second vice president; John Gunn, third vice president; Ilya Stephanoff, secretary; and Dr. Fred Hoops, treasurer.

Myrl C. Rupel will serve as tail twister and Mervyn H. Porter as lion tamer. Four directors serving on the board will be Jack Davidson, Dr. W.W. Mooring, A.E. Perkins, and Dr. V.H. Markham who will be serving as director for the second year.

Two Evangelical Pastors Will Continue in Posts

The California Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church concluded its annual session Sunday in Santa Ana with the appointment of ministers for the next year.

Both Torrance ministers, the Revs. Walter Stanton of Central Church and Monrad Bergesen of Hope Church in GAMBLER'S LUCK along with the pretty hand of Patricia Owens, is the highlight of "These Thousand Hills," a motion picture about a western land untamed starring Richard Egan and Don Murray. The picture starts tonight through July 2, and plays with "Carnival Story," a drama about "high diving, high jinx death," at the Radium.
